

Adam M. Singer

Partner

---

Contact

+1 212.756.2729

adam.singer@srz.com

919 Third Avenue

New York, NY 10022

Advises on asset-backed securitizations, warehouse credit facilities and swaps and other derivative products.

Adam has represented underwriters, issuers, lenders and borrowers across a variety of asset classes, including structured settlements, litigation advances, lottery receivables, home improvements and marine and recreational vehicles, commercial, mezzanine and multifamily loans, and various types of residential mortgage loans (including fix and flip), among others.

He has also represented issuers, underwriters, collateral managers and portfolio purchasers in public and private structured financings, including collateralized loan obligations (CLOs).

---

---

Practices

FINANCE

PRIVATE CREDIT

STRUCTURED FINANCE

---

Bar Admissions

New York

---

Education

University of Chicago Law School, J.D.

- Staff Member, The Chicago Journal of International Law

Southern Connecticut State University, B.S.

- magna cum laude
-

Publications

- “Volcker Rule 2.0 – Impact of Final Rule on CLOs,” Schulte Alert, June 29, 2020
- “Regulatory Agencies Request Comments on Proposed Amendments to the Volcker Rule Which Will Affect Collateralized Loan Obligations,” Schulte Alert, Jan. 31, 2020
- “H.R. 4620: Attempting to Preserve Access to CRE Capital,” Securitization Flash, April 18, 2016
- “Risk Retention Rules for ABS Transactions – Interesting Aspects of the B-Piece Buyer Option,” Securitization Flash, Dec. 31, 2015