SRZ Partner David Karp Discusses Current Distressed Debt Market in Turnarounds & Workouts

July 2013

In an article discussing the future of online claims trading platforms, SRZ partner David J. Karp talks to Turnarounds & Workouts about distressed debt transactions and the current market for claims against bankrupt companies. Among other areas, David notes that it is an interesting time in the market because investment funds are continuing to show more interest in claims trading and the secondary market is continuing to evolve.
