SRZ Attorneys Author Definitive Book on the Formation, Operation and Regulation of Hedge Funds

October 17, 2013

Schulte Roth & Zabel attorneys have written a comprehensive new book on hedge funds for both fund sponsors and investors. Hedge Funds: Formation, Operation and Regulation, published by ALM's Law Journal Press, is an up-to-date and forward-looking guide that clearly and fully explains the complete spectrum of hedge fund investment structuring, operations and regulation.

As the hedge fund industry has grown dramatically in size and complexity, it has become both an important part of global asset management and the focus of new legislation and regulation. This all-encompassing book provides an expert look at the state of the industry, providing legal and practical insights into taxation, regulation, documentation, and strategic issues. Specific topics include hedge fund investment strategies and structuring a hedge fund management company, domestic and off-shore hedge fund structures and tax considerations, terms, fees and related considerations, regulatory requirements and fiduciary obligations of investment advisors, and fund documentation, including marketing materials, offering memoranda and governing documents.

Offering an unparalleled understanding of the legal and operational aspects of the hedge fund industry, the SRZ authors represent a broad range of practices and include investment management partners Stephanie R. Breslow, David J. Efron, Steven J. Fredman, David Nissenbaum, Paul N. Roth, Jennifer Dunn, Kenneth S. Gerstein, Christopher Hilditch, Daniel F. Hunter and Jason S. Kaplan; investment management regulatory & compliance partner Marc E. Elovitz; employment & employee benefits partners David M. Cohen and Holly H. Weiss; finance partner Daniel V. Oshinsky and former SRZ lawyers Nancy R. Finkelstein and Lawrence S. Goldberg; mergers & acquisitions partner Peter Jonathan Halasz; structured finance & derivatives partner Craig Stein and former SRZ lawyer Joseph Suh; and tax partners Philippe Benedict and Shlomo C. Twerski. The authors also received significant contributions from and litigation attorney Betty Santangelo, as well as associate Patrick Dundas; former Schulte lawyers Brad L. Caswell, Pamela Poland Chen, Jacob Preiserowicz, S. Beverly Prewitt, Naama Rosen, Benjamin A. Newman and Joseph P. Vitale; and tax special counsel David S. Griffel with associate David Wermuth.
