SRZ Attorneys Contribute to Commercial Litigation in New York State Courts

October 2015

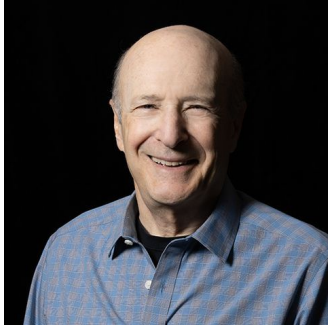

SRZ partners Robert M. Abrahams, Harry S. Davis, Robert S. Nash and Robert J. Ward have authored three chapters in the fourth edition of the critically acclaimed treatise Commercial Litigation in New York State Courts. Robert Abrahams co-authored the “Document Discovery” chapter with Scott Balber from Herbert Smith Freehills LLP, Harry Davis authored the “Provisional Remedies” chapter, and Robert Nash and Robert Ward co-authored the “Commercial Leasing” chapter with the Honorable Orin R. Kitzes of the Queens County Supreme Court, Commercial Division and Mark Mulholland of Ruskin Moscou Faltischek, P.C. SRZ associate Barbara Reid and former associates Stacy Ma and Shauneida DePeiza Saldenha assisted in the preparation of the chapters.

The eight-volume treatise is a step-by-step practice guide that covers every aspect of a commercial case in New York State courts, from the investigation and assessment that take place at inception through pleadings, discovery, motions, trial, appeal and enforcement of judgment.

A joint venture of Thomson Reuters and the New York County Lawyers’ Association, the fourth edition features the work of 182 expert authors, including some of the best commercial litigators in New York. Enhanced with new and expanded chapters, this seminal work has been completely updated, expanded and revised to address pertinent subjects. The authors discuss the interplay between rules of procedures and substantive law, outline strategies for representation of plaintiffs and defendants, and consider ramifications of various actions.
