13D Monitor's Active-Passive Investor Summit 2023

October 17, 2023

13D Monitor is a comprehensive qualitative research service specializing in shareholder activism and 13D filings. Subscribers include top investment banks and law firms, many of the most successful long/short hedge funds, some of the largest institutional investors, most of the premier activist hedge funds, investor relations companies, proxy solicitors and proxy advisory firms. Our founder, Ken Squire, has written the Activist Spotlight column for Barron's from 2007 to 2020. He now writes the column for CNBC where he is an on-air Contributor. He is frequently quoted in The Wall Street Journal and many other financial news publications with respect to shareholder activism.
