SETH R. HENSLOVITZ

Special Counsel
Schulte Roth & Zabel
New York City

Seth R. Henslovitz is a real estate special counsel at Schulte Roth & Zabel, where his practice concentrates on real estate transactions, including representing lenders and borrowers in connection with commercial mortgage and mezzanine financing and acquisitions and dispositions of mortgage and mezzanine debt. Additionally, Henslovitz's practice focuses on acquisitions and dispositions of commercial properties as well as restructurings and negotiation of joint venture agreements. He has been at Schulte for more than nine years and was promoted to special counsel in January 2014. In approaching his work, Henslovitz attains a deep knowledge of his clients and the industries in which they operate, and he is recognized for his work ethic and responsiveness to individual client needs.
