Representations

- Represents beneficiary of the estate and various testamentary trusts established by the founder of a multibillion-dollar hedge fund in accounting and other proceedings, including disputes with other beneficiaries over Hamptons' real estate property valued at more than $160 million.
- Represents the trustee of a testamentary trust with controlling interests in an internationally well-known restaurant enterprise in connection with claims raised by the trust beneficiaries relating to control and management of the trust assets.
- Represents an international sports association in connection with antitrust and contract claims asserted against it by an entity that unsuccessfully bid for opportunity to establish a sporting league, governed by the international organization, in the United States.
- Represented a major interdealer brokerage firm in various arbitrations and civil litigations arising out of a global corporate raid by a fierce competitor, including serving as co-lead counsel in a five-month jury trial resulting in a $100 million settlement for our client during jury deliberation.
- Successfully defeated alter ego liability claims asserted against a large private equity firm in a case alleging alter ego liability arising out of the alleged contractual breaches by a portfolio company in connection with its provision of services to a large metropolitan public transit authority.
- Defeated contract and defamation claims made against a multibillion-dollar investment firm by a former portfolio manager to whom it provided a $100 million notional seed capital investment.
- Represented an investment manager in a dispute with a former employee who claimed an ownership interest in tens of millions of dollars of client revenues.
- Successfully defeated brokerage claim on $1 billion sale of prominent New York City office tower.

- Served as lead counsel on a nine-day trial, obtaining a five-year Order of Protection for a client who suffered severe physical abuse by her husband.
