Focuses on counseling private fund advisers in navigating the increasingly complex regulatory landscape, including compliance with the requirements of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

Allison regularly counsels private fund advisers with SEC registration, structuring their compliance programs, complex regulatory matters, SEC examinations, and advice in connection with the structuring of acquisitions of other investment managers.

She has more than 25 years of regulatory compliance experience servicing global, multi-strategy asset management firms, including more than 15 years of experience advising private equity sponsors, both as outside counsel and in-house.

Allison's past in-house experience includes serving as a Managing Director and the Chief Compliance Officer of private equity fund sponsor CCMPCapital Advisors, where she oversaw all aspects of the firm's SEC regulatory compliance program and served on the firm's Operating Committee.

Before joining CCMP Capital Advisors, Allison was Associate General Counsel and Compliance Officer of private equity sponsor Oak Hill Capital Management, Corporate Counsel at Fischer Francis Trees & Watts, a globally based fixed income manager and Vice President and Counsel at global multi-strategy asset manager Alliance Capital Management.
