SRZ Handles Successful SAG-AFTRA Merger

March 30, 2012

SRZ is representing the Screen Actors Guild (“SAG”) and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (“AFTRA”) in a successful merger of the two organizations. Approved on March 30 by an overwhelming vote by the members of the organizations, the merger became effective immediately. The newly-created entity, SAG-AFTRA, brings under a single union banner more than 150,000 actors, announcers, broadcasters, journalist, dancers, DJs, news writers, news editors, program hosts, puppeteers, recording artists, singers, stunt performers, voiceover artists and other media professionals. The SRZ team includes partners Mark E. Brossman and Dan A. Kusnetz and associate David Wermuth.
