Stuart Freedman Discusses Myths and Realities of Doing Business in Asia

April 18, 2012

SRZ mergers & acquisitions partner Stuart D. Freedman recently discussed “Global Private Equity: Myths & Realities of Doing Business in China” as part of Grant Thornton’s Global Issues Series for Asset Management Firms. The April 18 event covered a wide range of topics, including the underlying macro-trends in Asia, favorable regions for doing business, difficulties understanding the Chinese market from the perspective of a U.S. private equity investor, differences between Asia and other emerging markets, expectations regarding returns, working with the Chinese government and reasons for optimism in the market.
