SRZ Attorneys Publish Insider Trading Newsletter

Summer 2012

Recent legislative, regulatory and judicial developments relating to insider trading reflect an increased focus on preventing and prosecuting the trading of securities and commodities based on material nonpublic information. Attorneys in the firm's litigation practice have published the latest issue of SRZ's Insider Trading Developments newsletter, which includes an outline of SEC/DOJ actions in 2012 and highlights recent Congressional action, regulators' aggressive prosecution of "expert network" cases and the broad view that prosecutors and courts are taking of insider trading.
