Josh Dambacher Named to the Financial News “40 Under 40 Rising Stars of Legal Services” List

March 13, 2013

Described as “one of the City’s leading hedge fund lawyers,” SRZ London partner Josh Dambacher was named to the “40 Under 40 Rising Stars of Legal Services” list, Financial News’ editorial pick of “the brightest up-and-coming lawyers aged under 40” in Europe. This is the second year Josh has appeared in a Financial News “40 Under 40” list. In 2012, Josh was the only lawyer named to the list of money managers, investors, consultants and prime brokers in the “40 Under 40 Rising Stars of Hedge Funds” list. In both lists, he was recognized for working with some of the top alternative investment funds in Europe and for becoming the go-to lawyer for new fund launches.
