Schulte Lawyers Named to '2015's Deals & Dealmakers' List for Work on the Sale of the Helmsley Building

March 23, 2016

Real estate partner Julian M. Wise and special counsel Seth R. Henslovitz, together with Greenberg Traurig lawyers, were named to the Real Estate Forum "2015's Deals & Dealmakers" list for their work representing the seller on the $1.2-billion sale of the historic Helmsley Building at 230 Park Avenue, one of the largest New York City office building sale transactions of 2015. The annual feature noted that one of the many items that made the deal stand out was that it wasn't a straightforward asset sale, but involved the sale of REIT interests, involving many different levels of complexity.
