Brexit: What Alternative Asset Managers Can Expect

The Hedge Fund Journal

July/August 2016

On 23 June 2016, the British public voted to leave the European Union after 43 years of membership. Although the results of the referendum are not binding in law and there remains a possibility of a constitutional challenge, the early indications from Prime Minister Theresa May and leading figures within the ruling Conservative Party are that the United Kingdom will proceed with the so-called Brexit. In this article, partners Christopher Hilditch and Anna Maleva-Otto discuss the potential effects of Brexit on alternative asset managers in the United States and the United Kingdom.
