SRZ Insights: Section 16(b) Reporting

January 2017

In this SRZ Insights video, partners Eleazer Klein and Michael Swartz discuss the impact of Section 16(b), the short-swing profit rule that requires corporate insiders to disgorge any profits from trades made within six months of each other. In addition, the partners address how short-swing profit litigation is affecting hedge funds and talk about recent cases brought against fund managers.

SRZ Insights videos feature firm attorneys sharing their expertise on timely topics in the financial services industry. For more SRZ Insights, visit the firm on Vimeo.
