Schulte Represents Water Asset Management in Securing Board Seats at Cadiz

May 2, 2018

Schulte represented Water Asset Management LLC (“WAM”) in securing the addition of two board members of Cadiz Inc. WAM, Cadiz’s largest equity shareholder, is a leader in public-private partnerships in the water industry, managing water-related activities across the western United States and internationally. Cadiz is a publicly held renewable resources company that owns significant water resources in Southern California.

The Schulte team representing WAM includes partner and co-chair of the firm’s global Shareholder Activism Group Marc Weingarten and former Schulte lawyer Aneliya Crawford.
