Taleah Jennings Named Among Savoy Magazine's 2018 Most Influential Black Lawyers

July 2018

Schulte partner Taleah Jennings has been named among Savoy magazine's 2018 Most Influential Black Lawyers. The listing showcases African-American men and women who have been recognized for their legal leadership and expertise in national and global leading corporations.

A partner in the firm's Litigation Group, Taleah focuses on complex commercial litigation, including securities, trusts and estates and litigation involving employment-related disputes, with cases in state and federal courts as well as regulatory and arbitration forums. She serves as co-chair of the firm's Diversity & Inclusion Committee and as a member of the Hiring Committee and the Women's and Latino Affinity Groups. Among other distinctions, Taleah has been named to Benchmark Litigation's list of leading lawyers under 40 and to the New York Super Lawyers Rising Star list. She also received the Burton Award for Distinguished Legal Writing and the Excellence in Pro Bono Advocacy Award from Sanctuary for Families.
