How Employers Can Provide Student Loan Repayment Assistance as an Employee Benefit

Thomson Reuters Taxation of Exempts

July/August 2019

Although only 3% to 4% of employers currently provide some form of student loan repayment assistance to employees, this type of benefit is expected to gain more popularity among employers in the near future. In this article, partner Mark Brossman, special counsel Susan Bernstein and associate Abdulrahman Alwattar discuss why employers should consider developing a student loan repayment assistance benefit plan.
