White House Bans Trading in 31 Chinese Companies

November 13, 2020

On Nov. 12, 2020, President Donald Trump signed an Executive Order[1] that, effective Jan. 11, 2021, will impose a ban on trading by U.S. persons in the securities (and derivatives thereof) of 31 entities[2] deemed to be supporting the People's Liberation Army of China (each, a "Covered Company," a complete list of these companies is appended to this Alert). The Executive Order does not impose an immediate trading ban, and a temporary safe harbor is provided for divestment from Covered Companies.

Timing and Effectiveness

The Executive Order's ban does not go into effect until early January. Furthermore, the Executive Order permits otherwise prohibited "purchases for value or sales," through Nov. 11, 2021, if made "solely to divest" (wholly or partially) from Covered Companies.
