

PUBLICATIONS

J&J Talc Lawsuits Transferred to New Jersey—A Look into the Texas Two-Step Maneuver

Pratt's Journal of Bankruptcy Law

April/May 2022

Last November, in In re LTL Mgmt. LLC, Bankruptcy Judge Craig Whitley in Charlotte, North Carolina, ordered LTL Management LLC's Chapter 11 bankruptcy case moved to New Jersey after finding that LTL Management had used the "Texas Two-Step" to manufacture jurisdiction in North Carolina improperly. LTL Management is a subsidiary of Johnson & Johnson ("J&J") and a defendant in thousands of talc-related tort claim lawsuits.

Related People

Douglas Mintz

Partner
Washington, DC

Kelly (Bucky)
Knight

Associate
New York

Attachments

⬇ Download Publication