SRZ CIO Andrea Markstrom Quoted in Legaltech News: “Legal Tech’s Predictions for the Business of Law in 2023”

January 6, 2022

Schulte Roth & Zabel Chief Information Officer Andrea Markstrom recently spoke with Legaltech News to discuss her predictions for what to expect in the business of law in 2023.

According to Andrea, “[d]eveloping and delivering innovative business and value-added legal operation services is becoming increasingly required by clients and, as a result, will be increasingly important for legal service providers. In addition to addressing a vital client need, it provides law firms the opportunity to deepen relationships with those clients while becoming more competitive in their market.”
