Impact Summit America 2023

October 18, 2023

Impact Summit America is a highly curated institutional investor conference that annually brings together thought leaders and practitioners in the impact investing space. The conference aims to catalyse institutional capital to support the UN's Sustainable Development Goals, promoting sustainable investing that goes hand-in-hand with market-competitive financial returns. This conference will share practical instruments for investors to increase their impact allocation, contributing to scaling their positive impact on people and the planet. It also provides the necessary content and tools to start investing for impact and returns.
