

FIRM NEWS

Schulte advises JANA Partners in tactical partnership with Cannae Holdings, Inc.

February 27, 2024

Schulte Roth & Zabel represented JANA Partners (“JANA”), an investment firm focused on creating value through shareholder engagement, in a constructive partnership with Cannae Holdings, Inc. (“Cannae”).

The deal will benefit JANA investors who will realize an increase in returns through the expansion of its industry operator network and support an M&A mechanism to expand shareholder value. JANA Partners was founded in 2001 by Barry Rosenstein and invests in undervalued public companies by engaging with management teams and boards to unlock value for shareholders and improves governance at public companies.

The Schulte team was led by Of Counsel Stuart Freedman; Partner Ele Klein, Co-chair of the M&A and Securities and Global Shareholder Activism Groups; Partners Philippe Benedict (Tax) and Damian Petrovic (M&A and Securities) along with Special Counsel Margaret Hanson (M&A and Securities) and Christine Harlow (Tax) and M&A and Securities Associates Brandon Gold and Nikki Nikova.

Read the Financial Times article here.

Related People

Stuart
Freedman

Of Counsel
New York

Ele
Klein

Partner
New York

Philippe
Benedict

Partner
New York

Damian
Petrovic

Partner
New York

Margaret Hanson

Special Counsel
New York

Christine Harlow

Special Counsel
New York

Brandon
Gold

Special Counsel
Washington, DC

Nikoleta
Nikova

Associate
New York

Practices

SHAREHOLDER ACTIVISM

TAX