Schulte Congratulates Its Client AGL Credit Management in Private Credit Partnership With Barclays

April 3, 2024

Schulte Roth & Zabel co-counseled AGL Credit Management LP in connection with its expansion into the private credit loan origination business.

In a move that will give AGL an advantage over its rivals, AGL will gain access to Barclays' investment pipeline through exclusive private credit loan origination opportunities. The deal is backed by a significant anchor investor.

AGL is an experienced corporate credit manager with a differentiated investment model and innovative approach to creating and managing corporate credit investments to maximize the investment objectives of its investors and partners.

The Schulte team was led by partners David Nissenbaum, co-chair of the Investment Management Group, Philippe Benedict (Tax) with special counsel Christine Harlow (Tax) and associates Dylan Swanson (Investment Management) and Michael Jaroslawicz (Tax).
